2. William Yowell (Sr.), born ca 1741, died -----, married -----

a. William Yowell Jr. born May 1763 died 1822 (killed in steamboat explosion) married Margaret Jane (Peggy) Coppage 18 Feb. 1803 Washington Co. Ky.; born 1763-1770 died 1861 (98 to 99 years of age); Margaret came to Ky. when 7 years old. Family was in Daniel Boone's Party. Daughter of Moses & Mary Jane Catlett Coppage born 1735 Va. died 1801 Marion County, Kentucky. died 1812-15; Mary Jane was daughter of John Catlett, Born -----, died 1789; William traded with a wandering Tinker (a horse trader) for a colt, he named Tinker. The colt, having developed into a fine race horse, won all the races in the neighborhood, later being taken by William to race in New Orleans. General Andrew Jackson and many other southern sportsman were present and William & General Jackson matched their horses in a race, with heavy stakes on the winner. Tinker won and the General gave William papers transferring his home, "The Hermitage". Steamboating was then new and little understood. The boat on which William took passage for home had gone to below New Orleans, come in contact with the salt water of the gulf, and as a result the boiler became encrusted with salt. On the way back up the Mississippi the boiler blew up and William lost his life and all the possessions he had with him. This was the first Mississippi steam boat disaster.
